

GALLERY GUIDELINES

FOR SHOWS AT THE NORTH PORT ART CENTER

ORIGINALITY

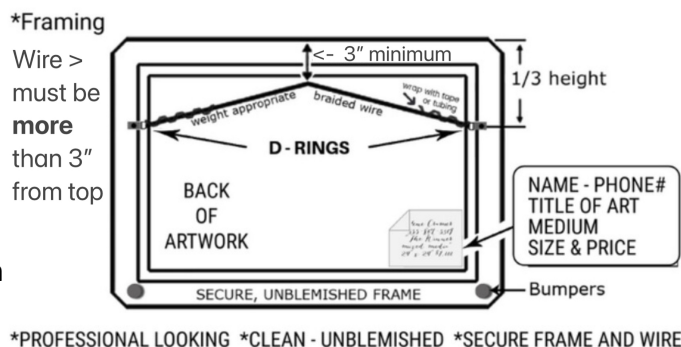

Materials must be original to artist and not derived published or copyrighted images and completed in the last 3 years, sculpture last 5 years. No reproductions (prints, giclees) except digital productions. Work may be shown only once at a NPAC sponsored show. Work may not be removed from the NPAC Gallery to be shown in another exhibit.

SIZE

Maximum size: No side to exceed 5' and after assuring space for remainder of exhibit. Art over 50 lbs accepted at the Gallery Committee's discretion and artist must be present to assist with placement day of receiving and takedown.

FRAMING

Artists may use glass in framed pieces under 22 x 28 ". We require Plexiglas in all framed work over 22 x 28 ". Unframed canvas must be "gallery wrapped" with painted edges. Framed and gallery-wrapped pieces must be wired with D-rings with the looped ends secured with tape or tubing. The hanging wire should be one-third from the top and hook more than 3" from top so that the Gallery Hook does not show.

NO Saw-Tooth Hangers, fishing line, chains, or Poster Frames! Any artwork may be turned away until it meets guidelines before the end of receiving or a $5 fee for gallery repairs.

Artist name, phone number, e-mail address, price, and title must be written on the back of all art.
